

CAISTER ACADEMY
Creative Education Trust
School of Literature and Performing Arts

Be An Excellent Francophile

#LovetoLearn

What could you do to improve your knowledge and understanding of family and home in French?

Watch 	Read 	Listen
Learn how to describe what is in your room in French: https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/topics/zjx947h/articles/zr2dbdm	Read about French families: https://www.ohlalafrenchcourse.com/en/blog/article/what-are-french-families-like-family-vocabulary	Learn these new pets and family members in French https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/topics/zjx947h/articles/zmvpqp3
Practice	What?	Who?
Design your ideal house in French. https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=BqP2CYqMQuw	Can you spot links with rooms and other vocabulary? E.g. la salle à manger = the dining room (manger = to eat)	 Who were the Curie family and why were they famous?