

CAISTER ACADEMY
Creative Education Trust
School of Literature and Performing Arts

Be An Excellent Artist

#LovetoLearn

What happens when we turn remembrance into celebration?

Watch 	Read 	Listen
 Day Of The Dead: Sugar Skulls: How They're Made https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=hJeDKPA8Tgw	Day of the Dead https://kids.nationalgeographic.com/celebrations/article/day-of-the-dead	 How Different Cultures Dealt With Death https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=aEORZCA8Oc4
Practice	What?	Who?
Papel Picado Banner Panel Using coloured paper, design and cut your own papel picado-style panel with symbolic imagery (flowers, candles, hearts, animals, etc.) Your design should be symmetrical and include at least 3 symbolic shapes.	What Symbols, Objects And Traditions Make Día De Los Muertos Unique? Research the traditions of Día de los Muertos and explore how objects like skulls, candles, food, marigolds, papel picado and ofrendas are used to remember loved ones.	Who is José Guadalupe Posada? Make a research page about the Mexican printmaker José Guadalupe Posada, exploring his creation of the figure La Catrina, the role of skull imagery in Mexican art, and how his work influenced how we view calaveras today.