

CAISTER ACADEMY
Creative Education Trust
School of Literature and Performing Arts

Be An Excellent Artist

#LovetoLearn

What do you stand for, and how will you show it in your art?

Watch 	Read 	Listen
 What is Protest Art? https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=1_iqS_disW0	The Right To Protest: The Exhibition Navigating Counter-culture Through Archival Activist Design https://www.itnicethat.com/articles/the-right-to-protest-dave-bell-the-museum-of-unrest-graphic-design-exhibition-240925	 Banksy Artwork Shredded After Selling at Auction https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=eXKE0nAMmg4
Practice	What?	Who?
Portrait Poster Design Draw a portrait of someone you admire. Then redesign it as a poster: add bold text, background graphic, simplified features, striking palette.	What is activism in art? Create a research page that explores how artists use visual art to speak out about political, social, or environmental issues. Find at least two examples of activist art from different contexts. Include short reflections: What issue matters to me? How could I express that visually in a portrait or poster?	Who is Barbara Kruger? Make a research page about American conceptual artist Barbara Kruger. Explore her use of text, bold colours, and graphic design to challenge consumerism, power, and gender roles.